Symptoms

Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON Guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

THE SEPERATE CAR BILL.

Passed by the Senate and is Now a Law.

The "Jim Crow" or separate car bill was passed by the senate yesterday and is now a law. It reads as follows:

Section 1. That all railway and steamboat companies, as common carriers in the transportation of passengers for hire in North Carolina, other than street railways, shall provide separate, but equal, accommodations for the white and colored races on all passenger trains and steamboats carrying passengers. Such accommodations may be furnished by railway companies either by separate passenger cars, or by compartments in passenger cars, which shall be provided by the railways under the supervision and direction of the board of railway commissioners or the officers succeeding to their powers: Provided, that this shall not apply to relief trains in cases of accident, to Pullman or sleeping cars or through express trains that do not stop at all stations and are not used ordinarily for traveling from station to station; to negro servants in attendance on their employers; to officers or guards transporting prisoners, nor to prisoners so transported.

Sec. 2. The railway commissioners, or the officers succeeding to their powers, are hereby authorized to exempt from the provisions of this act branch lines and narrow gauge railways, if in their judgement the enforcement of this act be unnecessary to secure the comfort of passengers, by reason of the light volume of passenger traffic or the small number of negro passengers traveling on such narrow gauge or branch lines.

Sec. 3. That when any coach, or compartment of a car, for either race shall be completely filled at a station where no extra coach or car can be had and the increased number of passengers cannot be foreseen the conductor in charge of such train is hereby authorized to assign and set apart a portion of a car, or compartment, assigned for passengers of the race to passengers of the other race.

Sec. 4. That all railway companies shall furnish first and second class passenger accommodations.

Sec. 5. That any railway company failing to comply in good faith with the provisions of this act shall be liable to a penalty of $100 per day, to be recovered in an action brought against such company by the railway commissioners, or the officers succeeding to their powers, in the county of Wake, and covered into the state treasury.

Sec. 6. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

"POPULAR" is the name of a line of ladies' exotics made by the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co., of St. Louis, one of the largest shoe houses in the world, doing a business of five to six million dollars annually. This line is rightly named the "popular," as it is beyond doubt one of the best and most popular lines of ladies' low shoes in the country. Scores of ladies here in Greensboro have worn this make for the last three or four years and positively won't buy any other kind when they can get the "popular." One reason why these exotics are "popular" is because they fit and "feel good" the first time they are worn. For a neat, dressy shoe that will do for both street and home wear we recommend the new Coin toe, while if you want only solid comfort regardless of appearance we can give you the "popular" in regular wide bottom, low heeled common sense style.

Thacker & Brockmann.

A Close Shave.

Tom O'Connor, who drives one of the Steam Laundry's delivery wagons came near being seriously hurt this morning. He was driving through a hanging gate in the rear of the Benbow House, when the gate weights not being sufficiently heavy, the gate fell, catching O'Connor's neck between it and the top of his wagon. The fall frightened the horse, which jumped forward. Had the gate been a strong one the driver's head would no doubt have been clipped off in short order, but fortunately the old gate gave way and the O'Connor came out of the wreck little the worse for his experience.

Attention Firemen.

The regular monthly meeting of the G. S. F. E. Co. No. 1. will be held Thursday, March 2nd at 7:30 o'clock, in the fireman's hall. Every member urged to be present.

J. T. Abbott, Pres.

Attention Knights Templar.

Sir Knights will attend without uniform and all are urged to be present. Election of officers.

BIG BLAZE IN CHARLOTTE.

Loss Four Hundred Thousand Dollars.

THE COTTON COMPRESS BURNED

Also The Old Southern Railway Freight Depot—Five to Six Thousand Bales of Cotton.

Special to The Telegram.
Charlotte, March 2—A big fire at six o'clock this morning destroyed the cotton compress here; also the old Southern Railway freight depot. Five to six thousand bales of cotton were also destroyed.

The loss is placed at four hundred thousand dollars. The value of the cotton was covered by insurance.

THE POPE'S CONDITION.

He Kneels in Prayer Before Yielding to the Surgeon's Knife.

By Cable to The Telegram.
Rome, Mar. 2—The Pope passed a good night. He took a little soup and brandy at midnight and fell asleep. The fever increased somewhat during the night, but Lapponi says this is usually the case after such an operation and sleep will do the most to restore strength. Mazzoni will dress the part this morning although the condition of the Pontiff is not considered grave.

KNEEL IN PRAYER.

Paris, Mar. 2—A Rome despatch to Figar says that before yielding himself to the surgeon yesterday the Pope had strength enough to kneel and offer a short prayer. His holiness suffered severely during the operation. His cries were distinctly heard in the adjacent room. After the operation he turned to Dr. Lapponi and said in a tone of paternal reproach: "What a hard heart you must have to make an old man of ninety years suffer like this!"

THE WORK OF CONGRESS

Will be Done Almost Altogether in Conference Committees.

By Wire to The Telegram.
Washington, Mar. 2—The business in congress from now until Saturday noon will be done almost altogether in conference committees. The fate of the Nicaragua canal is in the hands of six men representing the two branches of congress. Unless the compromise suggested yesterday is accepted by the senate, conference agreement on the canal proposition is not likely to be reached.

In the senate Mr. Hale presented the conference report on the naval personnel bill, agreed to.

The conferees on the river and harbor bill have agreed to allow to stand the forty foot channel in New York harbor. The house conferees are contesting the senate amendments at every step.

KIPLING'S DAUGHTERS ILL.

Mr. Kipling Himself is Thought to be Slowly Improving.

By Wire to The Telegram.
New York, Mar. 2—It is announced this morning by Mr. Doubleday's bulletin that both of Kipling's daughters, Josephine and Elsie, are down with pneumonia. Mr. Kipling is improving, according to Mr. Doubleday's bulletin, which says: "As no rapid change is expected in Mr. Kipling's condition, a bulletin will not be issued until the afternoon after Dr. Janeway has been in consultation."

Hottest of the Season.

By Cable to The Telegram.
Manila, Mar. 2—This is the hottest day of the season and fortunately all is quiet inside and outside the American lines. A majority of the men are kept in the shade. The transport Morgan City arrived today, but the wives of officers and the other women passengers were not allowed to land, the authorities considering the conditions ashore too unsettled.

Fatal Explosion.

By Wire to The Telegram.
Wiesbaden, Pa., Mar. 2—An explosion of gas in No. 1 shaft of the Kingston Coal Company last night fatally burned David A. Thomas and Harry Evans. Wastle Shadrock was probably killed as his body has not been found. Thomas Evans, it is thought may recover.

Threatened With Pneumonia.

By Wire to The Telegram.
Harrisburg, Mar. 2—Representative elect Sibley, of Franklin, who came here Tuesday to participate in the senatorial contest, is seriously ill at the Bolton House. He became worse during the night and physicians say he is threatened with pneumonia.

Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

First Game of Ball.

Oak Ridge, March 2nd.
Editor Telegram:—The first game of base ball of the season, to be played in Greensboro, will probably be on the 29th inst., between Cornell University and Oak Ridge Institute. As Cornell University is one of the leading northern colleges in point of athletics, a good game may be expected. Oak Ridge Institute defeated Johns Hopkins at Greensboro last year, and her team is thought to be stronger this season than last, so no one need doubt that she will put up a strong game.

Oak Ridge has games scheduled with the University of N. C., Trinity College, The Agricultural and Mechanical College, at Raleigh, Roanoke College, (Oak Ridge, April 16th), Wake Forest College, and Horner's School. It has made efforts to get a game with Guilford College, and Bingham, but so far has not succeeded. The team is allowed to six games away from Oak Ridge, and two of these must be on Saturdays. XYZ.

The Seminole Play.

The Seminole Herbal Remedy Co. played to a good audience of men last night at the Greensboro opera house. The entertainment opened up with a comedy, entitled, "The Wood Merchant," and it was very laughable. The Doctor talked a while and then the fun went on. Mr. Dan Nash, as a change artist, is a wonder, and Mr. Besley, as a black-face comedian, is hard to beat. His banjo solos are good. The Doctor expressed his surprise and sorrow at not seeing any ladies in the audience, and said he hoped to see some there tonight. The show last night was perfectly clean and moral and if it continues that way ladies need not be afraid to attend. It is equally as good as the average popular-price comedy company, and was, last night, a great deal cleaner than some.

Hustling South Elm.

Lower South Elm street has a decidedly busy appearance just now. Not that bustle and stir is a new thing in that part of town for "hustle" is the word down there, but just now things look unusually busy. A small confectionery store is being put up, Mr. Volts is erecting a bake oven with bakery in front, and last, but by no means least, Manager Tom McAdoo is having some mammoth telephone poles erected. These are the largest and longest poles ever used in Greensboro and putting one in place is far from an easy task. It requires a dozen muscular men and a good deal of time and the work attracts a large crowd of spectators.

An Honest Medicine For La Grippe.

George W. Waits of South Gardner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

CLOSING DAYS OF CONGRESS.

Characterized by the Usual Confusion and Rush.

THE SOUTH IS FARING WELL.

River and Harbor Bill Will Become a Law—Bill Passed to Pay States for Fitting Out Troops.

Special to The Telegram.
Washington, Mar. 2—The closing days of congress are characterized by the usual rush. Members in both the house and senate are making much confusion in their efforts to get local bills through before noon Saturday. Most of the time in the house is occupied during these latter days of the session in acting on the appropriation bills as they are rushed over from the senate side of the capitol, and in acting on conference reports on various bills as they are presented. At intervals when the work lulls or drags, members clamor in front of the speaker's desk, crowding the space in front, in their efforts to secure recognition. The speaker is fair in his recognition of the members, taking his usual care to recognize only those members who have important measures or measures which are worthy and have some special feature to recommend them. He first recognizes gentlemen on one side and then on the opposite side of the house.

The south seems to be faring very well so far as local legislation is concerned during these closing hours. The bill to reimburse the states for the equipment of troops during the Spanish war, which claims were held up by the treasury department, has gone to the president, and is a measure in which Virginia, North and South Carolina and other southern states are particularly interested. The river and harbor bill, in which perhaps the south has more at stake than any other section, will become a law with an item for the construction of the Nicaragua canal, though the latter amendment will be considerably cut down. The bill known as the omnibus claims bill, which makes provision for the payment of a large number of southern claims has gone to the president, and will become a law before Saturday noon. In addition to these important measures, in which the south is indirectly interested, within the past day or two, a large number of bills for the erection of public buildings in the south have passed both houses and gone to the president for approval.

The bill for the reimbursement of the southern states for their claims in connection with the Spanish war, passed both houses yesterday, a full agreement being reached by the conference committee which had charge of the measure. The bill provides for the payment of the claims of Virginia, North and South Carolina and other southern states. The president, who, it is said, suggested the passage of the bill through congress, will give the measure his prompt approval, and the treasury department, it is understood, will allow the claims at once.

Senator Daniel's amendment for the payment of five thousand dollars to pay the legal representatives of the late James Crookes and William Crookes, of the United States and Canada, for the value of the vessel known as the "Lord Nelson," illegally seized by Lieutenant Woolsey, of the United States navy, on Lake Ontario, June 6, 1812, failed to get on the naval appropriation bill, as the senator from Virginia at first intended. He has introduced the amendment and hopes to get it upon the general deficiency bill.

Judge Simonon, it is thought, will soon retire from the bench on account of illness. Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, is prominently mentioned for the judgeship, as is also Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina. It is said on good authority that McLaurin will be a candidate if Judge Simonon retires.

Senator Pritchard says that the war department will issue the orders mustering out the First North Carolina regiment within one week.

The appointment of Mr. Reeves, of Illinois, as a member of the river and harbor committee was a surprise, as it was thought Mr. Cooper, of Wisconsin, who has the right of priority, would go to the committee. It is understood that Mr. Cooper was excused from serving on the committee at his own request.

Postoffice has been established at Uno, Henderson county, North Carolina.

Postmasters have been commissioned in North Carolina: Joseph H. House, Balsam Grove; Jasper Y. Yelton, Golden; Gideon S. Smoot, Austin; Mollie L. Shores, Grant; Mack G. Bryan, Winterville; C. Grant Station, Zirconia.

Mr. W. A. Barber and wife, of North Carolina, are registered at the National Hotel.

The postoffice at Antioch, Robeson county, has been moved 14 miles southwest.

John C. Allen has been commissioned postmaster at Tyro.

Mr. R. Scott and wife, of Wilmington, N. C., are at the National hotel for a few days.

Moore, H. L. Keeler and H. C. Dorr, of North Carolina, are at the National hotel.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE.

Games to be Played by the University Team This Season.

Chapel Hill, N. C., Mar. 1—Mr. John R. Carr, manager of this year's baseball team, has announced the baseball schedule in part for this season.

It is a most excellently arranged schedule, showing good management on the part of Mr. Carr. The schedule is as follows:

Saturday, March 11th—Bingham School (Mebane) at Chapel Hill.

Tuesday, March 28th—LaFayette College at Chapel Hill.
Saturday, April 1st—Lehigh University at Greensboro.

THURSDAY, MARCH 2, 1899.

Col. Julian S. Carr, the large hearted Durhamite, has added five thousand dollars more to his previous gift of ten thousand dollars to the University. The money will be used in erecting a dormitory building to be called the Carr building in honor of the generous donor.

If the state of New York finds electioneering too painful a mode of inflicting the death penalty, we would suggest death by elocution and make Senator Marion Butler the executioner. This method, however, might be rejected on the ground that there is no crime that deserves so horrible a death.

At the meeting of the board of trustees of the University yesterday Judge James E. Shepherd was elected Professor of Law to succeed the late Dr. John Manning. Judge Shepherd has served the state with distinguished ability both as superior and supreme court judge, and is eminently qualified to take up Dr. Manning's work in a manner that will be acceptable to the institution.

The late John H. Mills was a grand and a good man and it is passing strange that a newspaper should complain that too much is being written about him. The world has a way of reserving all its praise of a man's virtues until he is under the sod. That is largely the case in this instance; in fact there are few—very few—exceptions to the rule, but that is all that can be said against the praise of the man who was a friend to those who need a friend most—fatherless and motherless children.

Without fear of being branded with the terrible brand of "Friend of the Southern Railway," we desire to say that the service of that road is unequalled, if, indeed, it is equaled by any railway running through North Carolina. Each time we enter their trains we think of this fact, and especially are the fast mail and the vestibule rolling palaces of elegance, beauty and comfort. No higher compliment can be paid the service of this road than the large number of passengers with which every train is filled and the fact that it is necessary to add another through train to follow Nos. 37 and 38, which service, we are told, will be inaugurated on the 10th inst.

There is an important lesson to be learned from the recent dispensary fight in this city. Never have we seen such unanimity of thought and action on the part of those who advocated the measure. That is the keynote to success. The same determined effort and united action will do anything for Greensboro that the city needs or wants. It will carry the bond issue; it will build streets and put in sewerage; it will make Greensboro what it is destined to be—the largest city in the state. There are other things just as important as the dispensary. Let everybody get together with one purpose in view and pull with the same united effort as was recently manifested and greater things still will be accomplished. Constant, untiring work is wanted. Each victory will help some other to win. Onward, upward, higher, in moral and material development, is the slogan and Greensboro will indeed be, in more than one sense, the "City of Flowers."

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for La Grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure La Grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

High Point Items.

[Our regular High Point news was received at this office last night at 8 o'clock. We make this explanation to show why it was not printed yesterday.—Ed.]

A. J. Owen and family moved this morning to M. A. Smith's house on R. R. avenue.

Miss Fode Bodenheimer is relieving Mr. J. H. Petty today in the store, as his little girl is very sick.

James Seroggs, student of Trinity College, came home last night on account of ill health.

With regret we note the serious illness of Mr. C. C. McAllister, of Ashboro.

Prof. George White and Mrs. Hackney, of Guilford College, spent a few hours in the city this morning.

Miss Fannie Barwell, of Charlotte, came up from Ashboro yesterday afternoon and took supper with Mrs. J. M. Walker and left for home last night.

Ralph Bingham gave the most interesting performance here last night that was ever given in this city. He had a large and appreciative audience.

M. A. Smith and family left last night for Atlanta where he has bought out a drugstore. They will make that city their future home.

W. H. Fraser who recently sold out his interest in the High Point Furniture Co., has purchased a lot on the main line of the Southern railway and will begin building a furniture factory at once. He will manufacture a general line of furniture.

With scenery in the opera house the patrons will better enjoy the laughable comedies produced by the Murry-Hart company. They will open their three night's engagement Thursday night by introducing "My Uncle From Japan" and people from here who saw it in Greensboro last week, vouch for its keeping you laughing all the evening, and what do we want? Laugh and grow fat.

Misses Minnie Hamlet and Etta Rayle, of Greensboro, who have been visiting Miss Mamie Jordan for a few days, returned home today.

Sterne's Destitution.

Laurence Sterne, the writer, was the victim of the intensest poverty. A little time before his death, being in a state of destitution, he went one evening to borrow £5 from his friend Garriok. Upon arriving, he heard music and knew that a party was going on. He heard the merry laughter, and, gently replacing the uplifted knocker, retraced his steps.

We never feel our miseries so keenly as when contrasted with the joys of others, and it is only then that we realize Wordsworth's picture:

Another story of this writer does not evoke so much sympathy. It was known that Sterne used his wife very ill, and in talking with Garriok one day in fine sentimental style of conjugal love and fidelity he said, "The husband who behaves unkindly to his wife deserves to have his house burnt down over his head."

"If you think so," said Garriok quietly, "I hope yours is well insured."

A Malay Sultan's Letter.

In the cover there were three inclosures—a formal letter of extreme politeness written by a scribe; secondly, a letter written in my friend's own hand; and thirdly, another paper, headed, "Hidden Secrets," written also in the sultan's own hand. At the top of the first page of the second letter is written, "Our friendship is sealed in the inmost recesses of my heart." Then this, "I send this letter to my honored and renowned friend" (here follow my name, designation and some conventional compliments). The letter then continues: "You, my dear friend, are never out of my thoughts, and they are always wishing you well. I hear that you are coming to see me, and for that reason my heart is exceedingly glad, as though the moon had fallen into my lap or I had been given a cluster of flowers grown in the garden called Benjamin's air, wide opening under the influence of his sun's warm rays."

"Unaddressed Letters," by Sweetnam.

"There is one question I want to ask you, dearest," said the beautiful girl as she toyed with the diamond ring on her third finger. "When we are married, will you expect me to bake my own bread?"

"You can do as you like about it, darling," he replied, "but I certainly shall insist upon your not baking mine."—Chicago News.

Unhappy Hindoo Women.

The Hindoo holy books forbid a woman to see dancing, bear music, wear jewels, blacken her eyebrows, eat dainty food, sit at a window or view herself in a mirror during the absence of her husband and allow him to divorce her if she has no sons, injures his property, gossips him, quarrels with another woman or presumes to eat before he has finished his meal.

For La Grippe

Thomas Whitfield & Co., 250 Washington ave., corner Jackson st., one of Chicago's oldest and most prominent druggists, recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for La Grippe, as it not only gives a prompt and complete relief, but also counteracts any tendency of La Grippe to result in pneumonia. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Not one child dies where ten formerly died from croup. People have learned the value of One Minute Cough Cure and use it for severe lung and throat troubles. It immediately stops coughing. It never fails. Howard Gardner.

Vanity in Somaliland.

If you wish to make a Somaliland woman absolutely happy, you give her a looking glass. She will never before have seen one, but feminine instinct will teach her how to use it. Mrs. Alan Gardner, on one of her big game shooting expeditions in Somaliland, gave a native woman a looking glass for a Christmas present. She was so delighted with the first clear sight of her dusky countenance that she sat through two entire days and nights outside Mrs. Gardner's tent gazing with rapture at her own reflection.

On the morning of the third day the fame of the looking glass had spread through the country, and a row of 40 Somaliland women, collected from far and near, were engaged in taking an admiring turn at the magic mirror. When Mrs. Gardner came on the scene, she was greeted by 40 feminine Somaliland voices joined in chorus and each begging for a looking glass "all to herself." But, alas, for the limitations of a sporting outfit, the dusky belles were obliged to content themselves with the one communal mirror. And the woman with the looking glass remained for many weeks the most important person in Somaliland.—London Illustrated News.

The Colites and Amen.

I once witnessed a phase of prompt evolution of practical and of devotional religion in Scotch shepherds on a communion Sabbath among the moorlands. The churchyard was crowded with shepherds, accompanied by their dogs, which lay quietly asleep at the feet of their masters. The sermon was finished, the psalm had been sung, the final prayer was being offered, and there was no sign of impatience, but the moment the benediction commenced the devotional doggies all roused themselves, and before the "Amen" they were in marching order.—Newman Hall, an Autobiography.

Preparing For The Feast.

Lieutenant (to his orderly)—John, go to the restaurant and bring me a beefsteak with onions.

Orderly—Lieutenant, I take the liberty of reminding you that you are invited out to dinner today.

"Where have I been invited out to dinner?"

"You have been invited to dine with Mr. Holdfast."

"So I have to dine with the old miser? I must not go there unprepared. John, go to the restaurant and bring me two beefsteaks with onions."—London Tit-Bits.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. ## The Story of the Golden Fish.

We doubt not there are but few children who have not read the fairy tale of The Golden Fish.

It starts off like this:
Once upon a time there was a poor man who was noted and loved for his honesty and kind disposition. He was a hard working man, but with all his efforts he could not succeed in accumulating much of this world's goods.

One day he took it into his head to go fishing, so he went out and dug his bait, got some old fishing tackle and started for the creek, about a mile away.

He had not been fishing long when he got a good bite and pulled out a beautiful Gold-fish.

Now as a rule fish are not given to talking, but while the man was gazing at this one in open-eyed wonder the fish did speak, and it said: "Mr. Man, if you will throw me back into the water, that I may live, I will make you comfortable for the balance of your life."

Now if there was anything this man desired it was comfort, so he tossed the golden fish back into the water, went home, and found everything in splendor—his wife dressed in silks—and they were both happy the balance of their lives—with one exception: They could not buy a suit of Mrs. Hopkins' make of clothes for their boy.

We can furnish you a medium weight at closing-out prices.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Everybody is going to hear Gordon.

Got your ticket for Gordon? If you haven't, you had better go at once and get it.

There will be a large crowd at the opera house tonight. Big specialties and good singing.

We are glad to see Rev. P. J. Caraway on the streets again after ten days confinement by sickness.

Mrs. W. W. Ellington, who has been visiting in Richmond for some time, will return home in a few days.

To say the show at the opera house is not worth the price of admission is absolutely absurd. Go and see. Only 5 and 10 cents.

Rev. Livingston Johnson yesterday removed from his home on North Forbis street, to Mr. Rankin's house on Eugene street.

Don't wait until Wednesday night to secure your ticket to Gen. Gordon. If you do you will find yourself on the outside of the academy.

A synopsis of "The Story of the Golden Fish" will be found in the space of Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees today. Lower left-hand corner.

A PERPLEXING QUESTION.

Ten Cents For The First Correct Answer at This Office.

Some large terra cotta piping has been delivered at the foot of that memorable hill on lower South Elm street. A Telegram reporter seeing it set out in search of an authority expecting to get from him an item of the best and most rejoicing news for the inhabitants of that part of town; that ever appeared in our columns, namely: that that hill was to be forever, immediately and altogether removed. But it was too good to be true and the reporter began to tell the old, old story about work in other parts of town requiring the time of the street forces for some time yet and that the fulfillment of that promise would have to be indefinitely postponed, etc., etc. And the reporter bent his head and slowly walked away working on the problem: If it requires nine months for the board of aldermen to get the drain-pipe at the foot of a hill how long will it take to move the hill?

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Howard Gardner.

Hear the British Band.

Mr. Geo. G. French has received a letter from Mr. R. L. Vernon, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Railway, stating that 10,000 flyers have been printed to advertise the British Band, which will appear in Greensboro on the 9th inst. The Southern will sell special rate tickets from all points within fifty miles of Greensboro for this occasion.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

A week filled with the fervor of our matchless price making.
An Advertisement every line of which tells of money saving—from a store whose creed is to undersell.

Large type does not make shoe values. Shoes such as we show this week at $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 are not shown elsewhere.

Cash and economized expense makes the impossible elsewhere profitable here. Constantly increasing clientele shows growing appreciation of our shoe values.
